ATTRACTION

Jade Market

- The covered Jade Market, split into two parts by Battery St, has hundreds of stalls selling all varieties and grades of jade. But unless you really know your nephrite from your jadeite, it's not wise to buy expensive pieces here.

Temple Street Night Market

- Temple Street Night Market is the liveliest night market in Hong Kong. When the sun goes down, the traders have already laid out their wares and the opera singers, fortune tellers begin to emerge.

Yau Ma Tei Wholesale Fruit Market

- This historic and still operating market, founded in 1913, is a cluster of one- or two-storey brick and stone buildings with pre-WWII signboards. It is a hive of activity from 4am to 6am when fresh fruit is loaded on and off trucks, and bare-backed workers manoeuvre piles of boxes under the moon.

The One

- The ONE, a all-in-one retail complex, is one of the most anticipated developments in Tsim Sha Tsui.

Tin Hau Temple

- This large, incense-filled sanctuary built in the 19th century is one of Hong Kong's most famous Tin Hau (Goddess of the Sea) temples.
